

PROGRAM

Thursday 11 September 2008

TIME	SESSION / ACTIVITY
3.00pm – 5.00pm	ClubBio registration desk open MacArthur's Ballroom Foyer
6.00pm – 7.30pm	Welcome Cocktails, proudly sponsored by McCullough Robertson Lawyers Fountain Terrace
7.45pm – late	Optional Dinner - BEIS / ClubBio Combined Dinner The Grange Function Room

Friday 12 September 2008

TIME	SESSION / ACTIVITY
7.30am – 9.00am	Breakfast at leisure at The Cove Café
8.00am – 9.00am	Registration in MacArthur's Ballroom Foyer
8.30am – 10.00am	Opening plenary in MacArthur's Ballroom, proudly sponsored by Minter Ellison Lawyers Welcome: James Cameron: ClubBio08 Program Chair and Senior Associate, McCullough Robertson Lawyers Dr. Anna Lavelle: CEO, AusBiotech Session Speakers: Healthcare in 2020 Dr. Benjamin P. Chen: Managing Director - Merchant Banking, Burrill & Company, San Francisco Seeing - into the future Dr. Gerald J. Chader: Prof of Ophthalmology and CEO, Doheny Retina Institute, USC School of Medicine, Los Angeles
10.00am – 10.30am	Morning tea in MacArthur's Ballroom Foyer, proudly sponsored by Davies Collison Cave
10.30am – 11.30am	Networking Session, proudly sponsored by BioPharmaceuticals Australia A unique opportunity to get to know the people in your industry
11.30am – 12.30pm	Concurrent session #1: Bio-therapeutics, Cell therapies <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Too good to be true? The promise of iPS cells</li><li>• Recent advances in the development of induced pluripotent stem (iPS) cells</li><li>• Anticipated value of stem cells to the research community and patients</li><li>• Can stem cells deliver on the promise of regenerative medicine?</li></ul> Session Chair: Prof. Alan Mackay-Sim: Director, National Centre for Adult Stem Cell research, Griffith University Session Speakers: Dr. Megan Munsie: Director Government Affairs and Policy, Australian Stem Cell Centre Dr. Teija Peura: Director of Core Human Embryonic Stem Cell Laboratories, Australian Stem Cell Centre Concurrent session #2: Medical devices <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Avoiding the traps in getting your device to market</li><li>• Top ten mistakes to avoid</li><li>• Regulatory and sponsor perspectives</li></ul> Session Chair: Alistair Smith: Partner, Davies Collison Cave Session Speakers: Assoc Prof. Jim Patrick: Senior VP & Chief Scientist, Cochlear Ltd Dr. Martin A. Devitt: Medical Director, Perficio Pty Ltd

Friday 12 September 2008 continued

TIME	SESSION / ACTIVITY
11.30am – 12.30pm	Concurrent session #3: Agbio <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Biofactories of the future</li> <li>• Relevance to the carbon debate</li> <li>• Key Agbio deals</li> </ul> Session Chair: Prof. James Dale: Director, Centre for Tropical Crops &amp; Biocommodities, QUT Session Speakers: Dr. Stevens M. Brumbley: Senior Research Scientist, Australian Institute for Bioengineering and Nanotechnology, BSES Limited Dr. Rowland Cobbold: School of Veterinary Sciences, University of Queensland
12.30pm – 1.45pm	Lunch in MacArthur's Ballroom Foyer
1.45pm – 3.00pm	Concurrent session #4: Mergers and acquisitions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Handling shareholders expectations</li> <li>• Creating value through M&amp;A</li> <li>• Lifecycle of a deal (planning and executing, anatomy of a deal, managing alliance/licensee performance)</li> </ul> Session Chair: Stewart Gow: Manager Venture Capital Attraction, Invest Queensland, Qld Department of Tourism, Regional Development and Industry Session Speakers: Derek Pocock: Partner, McCullough Robertson Lawyers Gerard Davis: Global Director of Product Development and Laboratory Operations, Catapult Genetics Dr. Shane Storey: Senior Research Analyst, Wilson HTM Investment Group Concurrent session #5: IP/Licensing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Traps and pitfalls in licensing</li> <li>• Royalty structures and statistics</li> <li>• Trends in licensing</li> </ul> Session Chair: James Cameron: ClubBio08 Program Chair and Senior Associate, McCullough Robertson Lawyers Session Speakers: Rob McInnes: Chair, LES International Life Sciences Committee and Principal, Spruson &amp; Ferguson Lawyers Paul Field: CEO, Bio-Link Concurrent session #6: Alternative financing strategies, proudly sponsored by CSIRO Issues, Challenges, Opportunities and Strategies Session Chair: Dr. Tim O'Meara: Acting Theme Leader, Australian Biotechnology Growth Partnerships, CSIRO Molecular and Health Technologies Session Speakers: Dr. John Ballard: Director, B. R. Angels Allan May: CEO, Life Sciences Angels, USA
3.00pm – 3.30pm	Afternoon tea in MacArthur's Ballroom Foyer, proudly sponsored by Davies Collison Cave
3.30pm – 4.30pm	"SNPs and Specks", proudly sponsored by QFAB Two teams (Australia v Internationals) battle it out over an hilarious session of biotech wit and trivia Host: Hamish Hawthorn: CEO, ATP Innovations
4.30pm – 4.45pm	Conference Close James Cameron: ClubBio08 Program Chair and Senior Associate, McCullough Robertson Lawyers
6.30 – 7.30pm	Conference Pre-Dinner Drinks in The Grange Gardens, proudly sponsored by IMBcom
7.30pm – late	Conference Dinner in The Grange Function Room 80s in 08! "Relax, get into the groove and say a prayer while you walk like an Egyptian." This is a fun night, so put on your leg warmers, your acid wash jeans and your oversized sweatshirt for a night of 80s fun and prizes. Don't let your rivals style you out, be in the running for the 'best dressed' prizes.